The Worth Reading program aims to get everyone reading, learning and having fun — all year long. Three times a year, the library and its partner organizations begin a new chapter of story times, movies, programs, workshops and activities.

It's easy to participate; just pick up an activity card at any Fort Worth Library or partner location. Once you've completed five activities, turn in the card to be entered to win e-readers, tablet PCs, books, gift cards and more.

The Fort Worth Library often photographs or records programs for use in publicity materials. By being present during these activities, you consent to the use of your appearance or likeness by the Library, and its licensees, designees, or assignees, in all media, worldwide, in perpetuity.

La Biblioteca de Fort Worth a menudo fotografía o graba los programas para usarlos en materiales publicitarios. Al estar presente durante estas actividades, usted autoriza a la Biblioteca y sus concesionarios, personas designadas o cesionarios, a utilizar, a perpetuidad, su imagen o semejanza en todos los medios y en todo el mundo.

All libraries are wheelchair accessible. For accommodations, auxiliary aids or sign interpretive services, please call 817.392.7323 at least 48 hours in advance. If the Library does not receive notification at least 48 hours in advance, we will make a reasonable attempt to provide the necessary accommodations.

FAMILY Movie Fun

F Families are invited to bring a blanket and some friends and enjoy a free feature-length film. Adults must be accompanied by a child.

Max

■ CENTRAL 1 - 3 p.m., Sat., Sept. 10

Brave

Determined to make her own path in life, Princess Merida defies a custom that brings chaos to her kingdom. Granted one wish, Merida must rely on her bravery and her archery skills to undo a beastly curse. PG, 2012, 93 minutes.

■ CENTRAL 1 - 3 p.m., Sat., Oct. 8

Inside Out

After young Riley is uprooted from her Midwest life and moved to San Francisco, her emotions – Joy, Fear, Anger, Disgust and Sadness – conflict on how to best navigate a new city, house and school. PG, 2015, 102 minutes.

■ CENTRAL 1 - 3 p.m., Sat., Nov. 12

MOVIES that Matter

A A free bi-monthly film series that highlights important human and civil rights issues. Each event features a film screening, followed by a moderated discussion with special guests. A seat may be reserved through Eventbrite.com and entering Fort Worth Movies That Matter in the search field.

Lives Worth Living

This movie is a historical documentary about the Disability Rights Movement and a biography about one man's struggle to survive. Charismatic leaders of the movement narrate the story of a long, hard, and successful drive for civil rights — a drive that brought together a once fragmented population into a powerful coalition that created some of the most far reaching civil rights legislation in our nation's history. NR, 2011, 60 minutes.

■ Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth 7 p.m. Thu., Oct. 13

PADDINGTON Bear

F A young Peruvian bear with a passion for all things British travels to London in search of a home. Lost and alone at Paddington Station, he begins to realize that city life is not all he had imagined - until he meets the kind Brown family. After reading the label around his neck - "Please look after this bear. Thank you", they offer him a temporary haven. It looks as though his luck has changed until this rarest of bears catches the eye of a museum taxidermist. 2014, PG, 1 hr 35 minutes.

■ CENTRAL 2 p.m. Sat., Sept. 24 and Sun., Sept. 25

Paddington Bear's Adventures

See the movie then come back to the library in October for the program.

International Human Rights Day

■ Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth 1 - 5:30 p.m. Sat., Dec. 10

Blessed is the Match

She was only 22 years old when she parachuted into Nazi-occupied Europe in an effort to save the Jews of Hungary, but when poet and diarist Hannah Senesh was executed by the Nazis a year later, the modern-day Joan of Arc had already left behind a body of work and a legacy of bravery that would inspire generations to come. NR, 2010, 90 minutes. Starts at 1 p.m.

Everyday is a Holiday

Throughout her youth and young adulthood, filmmaker Theresa Loong recalls a cheerful father, Paul, who loved to laugh and play pranks on his kids, but who would show occasional flashes of anger and sadness. An innocent question about a curious scar on his back received an "everyone has secrets" response. She knew this much: His road to becoming an American citizen was anything but direct. The film draws upon Paul's experiences to explore contemporary issues of war, immigration, and national identity and celebrates the freedom that comes with confronting the past and facing the future with resilience, forgiveness, and love. NR, 2015, 60 minutes. Starts at 3 p.m.

Oil & Water

The story of two boys coming of age in the middle of one of the world's worst toxic disasters: the contamination of Ecuador's Amazon region by reckless oil drilling. Hugo comes to America to fight for the survival of his Amazonian tribe, while David goes to Ecuador to launch the world's first company to certify oil as 'fair trade.' Their journeys lead them to explore what could be a more just future for people around the world born with oil beneath their feet. Eight years in the making, it is a shocking and inspiring David and Goliath story. NR, 2014, 60 minutes. Starts at 4:30 p.m.

HOMESCHOOL Activity Days

E FROM LAND to Sea

This collection includes land and seascapes inspired by the Texas coast and state parks. The exhibit by Aron Williams embodies the traditional concepts of landscape painting, but with a textural twist. By using twine and reclaimed construction materials, the artist offers the viewer a sculptural element to his real and imagined interpretations of the Texas landscape.

■ SHAMBLEE Sept. 6 - Nov. 4

E ANIMAL, Vegetable, Mineral

See how a unifying sense of material exploration and play permeates through this diverse range of work. Artists explore line, shape, and color and blur the boundaries in their respective fields of painting, sculpture, fibers and printmaking. This exhibit transforms everyday inspiration into exceptional visions.

■ CENTRAL Gallery, Sept. 4 - Oct. 21

Reception: 4 - 6 p.m. Sat., Sept. 17

Artists Talk: 4 - 6 p.m. Sat., Oct. 15

E LATINO AMERICANS: 500 Years of History

This exhibit is a visual expression of the history of Latino American life in Fort Worth. The Fort Worth Library Archives participated in the Latino Americans: 500 Years of History* project in Fort Worth through solicitation of donations, as well as loans of records and photographs for the purpose of digitization, to establish the Fort Worth Library's Latino American Archives.

Latino Americans: 500 Years of History* has been made possible through a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the American Library Association.

■ CENTRAL West Wing, June 1 - Dec. 28

E FUSION: A Collaboration of Artists Embracing Eastern and Western Styles of Art

This exhibit includes a variety of works, including Chinese ink paintings, oil still life, watercolor, portraits, acrylic landscapes and sculptures from a group of senior Chinese-American amateur artists who have studied a western style of art for many years. See how an innately Chinese cultural style keeps appearing in their artworks.

■ CENTRAL Gallery, Oct. 30, 2016 - Jan. 6, 2017

Reception: 4 - 6 p.m. Sat., Nov. 5

E KALEIDOSCOPE OF African American Art

Come and experience original works and prints from local artists, Ken Carter and John Johnson, as they explore the different colors and mediums that shape African American culture.

■ SHAMBLEE Dec. 3, 2016 - Feb. 24, 2017

A T Wordslingers

Nnedi Okorafor: Nigerian American writer and professor Nnedi Okorafor has incorporated Nigerian cosmology, creatures her mother told her about, and stories she overheard the elders tell in Nigeria into her books and short stories.

Despite the fact that her work is classified as speculative, it's actually not so easy to tell what's fact and what is fiction in her work. Nnedi Okorafor will discuss the inspirations behind her highly imaginative works of science fiction and fantasy and prove to you that "realistic" fiction has many faces. 90 minutes.

■ EAST REGIONAL 6:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 30

Ken Liu: Hugo, Nebula, and World Fantasy Award winner Ken Liu will read from his debut short story collection, The Paper Menagerie and Other Stories, as well as his "silkpunk" epic fantasy novels, The Grace of Kings and The Wall of Storms. He will also discuss how his work is rooted in the literature of the fantastic and inspired by Classical Chinese literature, Western epics, paper-folding, the latest advances in science, engineering as poetry and touch upon translation as a metaphor for understanding all literature. 90 minutes.

■ RIDGLEA 6:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 21

Garth Stein: Behold this Dreamer! : Garth discusses his writing process for his new novel, A Sudden Light, including his research into Transcendentalism, the conservation movement, Spiritualism and his own spiritual epiphany when his dead father visited Garth in his dreams—an experience that greatly changed the trajectory of the novel. Garth will also talk about magical realism and spiritual elements of his other works, specifically Raven Stole the Moon and The Art of Racing in the Rain. 90 minutes.

■ CENTRAL 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 27

Jacquelyn Mitchard: Telling Stories About Stories: How Books Change Lives: Jackie talks about how stories are the cornerstone of every culture, religion and group. Stories are the way we share our hopes, fears and values, and may be the most distinguishing characteristic of humanity. She'll tell stories, both funny and moving, about her own recent experiences with the power of stories and how they've shaped her life. 90 minutes.

Música Juntos®

EL PE El plan de estudios de Música Juntos® es una serie de diez semanas que proporciona un entorno de aprendizaje basado en el principio de que los niños aprenden a través del juego, y que las primeras interacciones y experiencias sociales desempeñan un papel integral importante en el desarrollo de un niño. Padres e hijos(as) participan en la música, imitación activa, actividades con movimiento y reciben las herramientas para apoyar la interacción entre padres e hijos. La clase también promueve habilidades para la crianza de los hijos y aumenta el conocimiento de las necesidades para el desarrollo infantil. 45 minutos.

El programa es presentado por la universidad TCU (Texas Christian University), fundado parcialmente por la Fundación de la Biblioteca Pública de Fort Worth, y diseñado para infantes y niños de hasta 4 años de edad acompañados por al menos un adulto por cada niño. Es necesario registrarse. Llame al 817-392-7745.

Por favor tome en cuenta lo siguiente: Las familias pueden asistir únicamente a uno de los programas gratuitos de Música Juntos® ofrecidos por la Biblioteca de Fort Worth. Se limita la participación a un programa de Música Juntos® por familia. Familias interesadas en asistir a programas adicionales de Música Juntos® serán referidos a TCC para que tomen las clases por su cuenta al costo especificado por la universidad.

PARTICIPANT Guidelines

Although eligible for monthly in-house drawings and incentives, employees of the Fort Worth Library and their families are not eligible to win grand prizes.

- Activity cards are available at all Fort Worth libraries and online at wr365.org. Cards are available for three age groups: youth, teen and adult.
- A card contains 15 squares. Within each square is an activity related to reading, learning or self-improvement. Each time you complete one or more activities, have the square(s) stamped at a partner location.
- The first time you complete at least five different activities on a card, return the completed card to a Fort Worth Library location to receive a Certificate of Completion and an incentive, for example, a voucher for admission to the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History. Participants may submit only one card per day.
- Each completed card (five activities) serves as an entry in regular drawings so continue submitting completed cards. Each Fort Worth Library location will hold monthly drawings for unique prizes. Grand-prize drawings occur in September, and prizes will be awarded at the annual Celebration.
- The time, date and location of the celebration will be posted at wr365.org.
- Prizes awarded from grand-prize drawings include e-readers, netbooks, tablets and more. If you wish not to be entered in the prize drawing, do not complete the contact information on the card.
- Winners' names will be posted at wr365.org within 48 hours of the prize drawing.
- Winners need not be present at the celebration to claim prizes but must claim prizes within 10 days of being notified. Winners forfeit prizes if not claimed within 10 days of notification. Participants may win only one grand prize per chapter.
- To complete the program, cards must be submitted by the conclusion of each chapter.

Learn more at wr365.org or 817.392.7745.

INFORMACIÓN PARA Participantes

Aunque los empleados de la Biblioteca de Fort Worth y sus familias sí pueden recibir incentivos y participar en las rifas internas, no son elegibles para la rifa de grandes premios.

- Las tarjetas de actividades están disponibles en los locales de los socios participantes, incluyendo todas las Bibliotecas de Fort Worth, y por Internet en wr365.org. Las tarjetas están divididas en tres grupos de edades: niños, adolescentes y adultos.
- Cada tarjeta contiene 15 recuadros. En cada recuadro hay una actividad relacionada con la lectura, el aprendizaje o la superación personal. Cada vez que usted complete una o más actividades solicite que le estampen el recuadro en cualquiera de los locales de los socios participantes.
- La primera vez que usted complete un mínimo de cinco actividades diferentes regrese la tarjeta a cualquiera de las bibliotecas de Fort Worth para que reciba un Certificado y un incentivo, por ejemplo, un boleto de admisión al Museo de Ciencia e Historia de Fort Worth. Solamente se puede entregar una tarjeta por día por cada participante.
- Cada tarjeta con cinco actividades completas funciona como un boleto para participar en los sorteos que se llevan a cabo regularmente. Complete más tarjetas y tendrá más oportunidades para ganar premios. Cada sucursal de la Biblioteca de Fort Worth celebrará rifas mensualmente. El sorteo de grandes premios se realiza en septiembre y los premios se podrán recoger en la celebración anual o posteriormente.
- El día, hora y lugar de la gran celebración será anunciado en wr365.org.
- Entre los premios que se rifarán se incluyen e-readers, netbooks, tabletas y más. Si usted no desea participar en el sorteo, por favor no complete la información de contacto en la tarjeta.
- Los nombres de los ganadores serán publicados en wr365.org a más tardar 48 hrs. después de realizarse la rifa.
- Los ganadores del sorteo no tendrán que estar presentes durante la celebración para recibir sus premios. Una vez anunciados los nombres, los ganadores tendrán 10 días para reclamar su premio. Si el premio no es recogido en 10 días, el ganador renuncia a su premio. Los participantes podrán ganar un gran premio por segmento.
- Para completar el programa, las tarjetas deberán entregarse a más tardar al final de cada segmento.

Para más información visite wr365.org o llame al 817.392.7745.
