WHEREAS, minor changes to a site plan previously approved by the City Council for a Planned Development district may be administratively approved; and

WHEREAS, the parameters for minor changes to Planned Development site plans were established for developments in suburban areas where the increase of floor area, height, ground coverage and the reduction of setbacks and parking was not encouraged; and

WHEREAS, the established parameters are not consistent with the intent of Mixed-Use and/or Urban Residential districts which encourage density and are based on quality of form; and
