LETTER TO THE COMMUNITY

Dear Fort Worth Community,

As we embrace the warmth and vibrancy of summer, I want to take a moment to wish you and your families a safe and wonderful summer. This time of year brings opportunities to connect, reflect, and continue building strong relationships within our community.

I am thrilled to welcome Eric Sullivan as our new Deputy Police Monitor. Eric joined the City of Fort Worth in July 2024, bringing with him a wealth of experience as a former police officer and higher education safety compliance administrator. His commitment to accountability, community engagement, and ethical leadership will help guide OPOM in fostering trust and collaboration between law enforcement and our community. Eric will serve as Chief of Staff, assisting with community engagements and accompanying me in executive meetings.

This summer, we have introduced new engagement opportunities to ensure that our community's voice is heard. "Coffee with OPOM" and Community Hours provide spaces for open dialogue where community members can come together to discuss police oversight or even file official complaints. I look forward to connecting with you at a location near you and continuing these important conversations.

Thank you for your ongoing support and commitment to a safer and more transparent Fort Worth. Together, we can build a community that values fairness, trust, and collaboration. Have a safe and enjoyable summer, and I look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events!

Sincerely,

Bonycle Sokunbi

WHO WE ARE?

"Fostering Community Trust Through Collaboration and Law Enforcement Accountability and Transparency."

In response to a high-profile police incident and protests in 2017, the Fort Worth City Council formed a task force of community leaders. Initially focused on race and culture discussions, it expanded to address disparities in areas like criminal justice, economic development, education, health, housing, and governance. The criminal justice committee concluded its work by advising the city council to establish a monitor for police oversight. In February 2020, Office of the Police Oversight Monitor (OPOM) was established in accordance with city ordinance and commenced operations in March of 2020 to provide oversight and accountability of Fort Worth law enforcement. OPOM reports directly to the City Manager.

WHAT WE DO?

In order to achieve its mission, the OPOM engages in the following primary functions:

- Receives civilian complaints and refers them to Fort Worth Police Department Internal Affairs.
- Audit FWPD training sessions, body-worn camera footage, and use of force reports to ensure adherence to departmental policies.
- Engage with the community regularly to gather input, identify solutions, and improve relations.
- Collect and analyze data related to citizen complaints, uses of force, critical incidents, and other reviews.
- Create a citizen-police mediation program for conflict resolution and improving perceptions.
- Monitor FWPD contact and complaint investigations, identify patterns, and recommend changes.
- Serve as a civilian oversight agency to ensure greater accountability and public trust in the FWPD.
- Provide periodic public reports documenting findings, analysis, and recommendations.
- Review policies and procedures to meet or exceed best practices and address emerging trends.

MISCONDUCT WORK

What is Misconduct?

Police misconduct is the action or lack thereof of an officer that violates any rule, police procedure, order, verbal or written instruction of the FWPD or is a violation of any city ordinance, state or federal criminal law.

Misconduct includes, but is not limited to:

- Use of Force
- Abuse of Authority
- Failure to supervise
- Falsification of records
- Inappropriate language or attitude
- Harassment
- Interference with Constitutional rights
- Neglect of duty
- Discrimination
- Theft
- Retaliation for filing a complaint

Definitions

Complaint - an allegation of misconduct filed against a FWPD officer(s) by a community member. A complaint may concern an action or lack of action taken by an officer(s), an interaction with an officer, or a witnessed interaction with an officer.

Complainant - the individual who files a complaint against a FWPD officer(s). The complainant doesn't need to be personally affected by the incident.

Complaint form - used to file a formal complaint concerning a police encounter via the OPOM online interactive portal.

Formal Complaints - inquiries confirmed as formal complaints and are currently being reviewed. A complaint form has been received.

Inquiry - any and all contacts received by OPOM.

Possible Complaint - inquiry under review to determine if it is a formal complaint or if a complaint form has not been received.

COMMUNITY-POLICE MEDIATION

Taking referrals from FWPD IA

What is Mediation?

Community-Police Mediation is a voluntary process that brings together professionally trained community mediators to facilitate a dialogue between community members and law enforcement. It provides a space for open, two-way dialogue, allowing both parties to express their concerns, perceptions, and expectations in a confidential and non-judgmental way. It aims to address conflicts, build understanding, and improve relations between the police and the community they serve. The goal is to foster a more positive and collaborative relationship between the police and the community.

Mediator

A neutral and impartial third party who facilitates communication between conflicting parties. They don't impose decisions but instead encourage open dialogue and understanding. Mediators are recruited and trained by OPOM.

Consent

All parties must voluntarily agree to participate in mediation and give consent. The consent process involves communication between the participants and the Mediation Director or program staff about the mediation process, what to expect, and clarification of any questions.

Voluntary

All participants engage in mediation at their own free will. They can end the process at anytime and are not forced to come to any agreement.

Mediation is -

- Non-judgmental
- Confidential
- Voluntary

What qualifies for mediation?

- Rudeness/Discourteousness
- Neglect of Duty
- Unprofessionalism

Testimonial

“What I liked about the mediators was their.. openness and sincerity”
